I understand that it is my responsibility to mark all underground services I own, including but not limited to: private underground wiring, septic and sewer lines, well and water lines, private gas or fuel lines, and underground sprinklers. Norvado does not assume responsibility for customer owned underground facilities that are not marked.

Temporary Service Waiver

I _____
(homeowner) agree to allow Norvado to place a temporary drop cable to my residence for the purpose of providing communication services. I understand that this cable will be placed on the ground, and may be placed in areas of traffic. I release Norvado from any damages/harm that may occur to my property should the cable be damaged due to accident or negligence. I understand and agree that should I damage the cable, Norvado reserves the right to apply charges should Norvado determine that the damage was due to negligence.
